#CEIWinterRelief for the Tribals and other Vulnerable Rural Sections

The ongoing winter season is particularly difficult for the most destitute and marginalised sections of the society such as the Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups and the other similar extremely below poverty line sections of the society. There has been a resurgence in Covid-19 and other viral infections. CEI is providing sufficient aid to those destitute and disenfranchised sections who are living in most remote villages of Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh etc. where there is no medical facility or basic utilities available.

CEI Winter Relief Initiative - Maharashtra

Under #CEIWinterRelief Program, CEI distributed clothes and other essential provisions for winter to orphan girl Lali who lost her father. Cold wave amid Pandemic has added further to her woes. These tribal villages have also suffered from cold rainfall in these severe winter times. Imagine how Lali must have been suffering, in this severe winter living in the thatched hut. Raindrops seeping through her hut feels like being stabbed by knife in the ongoing cold wave.

CEI is taking care of essential provisions and providing her with warm clothes and food provisions. Through Sashakt Beti Abhiyan, CEI is also taking care of long term requirements of many such destitute girl child.

Look at the smile on the face of Lali when she received Warm clothes and other essential provisions from CEI.

CEI will ensure that Lali (Runali) gets a safe, healthy and happy childhood. Sashakt Beti Abhiyan

Previously CEI had also helped tribal couple Kunda & Dashrath ji. They belongs to Particularly vulnerable tribal group from remote Ganvdhan village (Khalapur tehsil, Maharashtra) with no source of income. They live in a thatched hut in a tribal village with no access to medical facilities or other fundamental requirements.

This problematic situation is further exacerbated by the fact that this winter, there has also been rapid increase in viral infections and other diseases. CEI is ensuring that essential relief provisions reach the most backward regions.

CEI will continue to carry out food & medical aid for the most impoverished and cut-off sections of societies in remote villages, tribal areas in places worst affected by Covid.
